

Tuesday 11th May 2010

An Afternoon Seminar

in

The Fleet Suite, One America Square, London, EC3N 2LB

THE IMPACT OF THE ENVIRONMENT ON MARINE SALVAGE

This Seminar is organised by the International Salvage Union for the Delegates attending the CMI Salvage Sub-Committee discussions on a possible revision of the 1989 Salvage Convention.

- | | |
|-------------|--|
| 1400 – 1415 | Introduction: Captain John Noble, General Manager, International Salvage Union |
| 1415 – 1445 | How Marine Salvage Operations are Affected by the Environment – Hendrik Land, Svitzer Salvage, The Netherlands |
| 1445 – 1515 | Dealing with Oil Spills – David Salt, Director, Oil Spill Response Ltd. |
| 1515 – 1545 | HNS Spill Response – Simon Rickaby, Director, Braemar Howells Ltd. |
| 1545 – 1615 | The Marine Salvage Industry, the Environment and US Coastguard Regulations – Captain Mark Hoddinott, Titan Salvage, UK/USA |
| 1615 – 1630 | Statistical Data – Mike Lacey, Secretary General, International Salvage Union |
| 1630 – 1700 | Open discussion |
| 1700 – 1800 | Reception |